Foundation beauty focused on female hormones.

Five delightful aspects of COCUU shampoo and treatment.

1.Scalp care with female hormone-like extracts.

Soybean seed extract3, which has female hormone-like effects, moisturizes from the scalp, leading to a healthy scalp.

2.Moisture barrier for lasting hydration.

The product contains natural jellyfish-derived raw collagen6, which offers approximately three times the moisturizing power, along with emollient and barrier function ingredients, providing a smooth and comfortable moisturizing feel.

3.Repairs hair with every use.

Oil keratin6 replenishes proteins and fatty acids simultaneously in damaged hair, providing double repair. It repairs from within the hair, increasing its strength.

4.Contains organic certified ingredients and plant oils.

Provides rich natural moisture to hair and skin with 5 types of organic certified ingredients and 7 types of plant oils.

5.Gentle, caring by mild bubbles.

Contains 11 types of amino acids to gently envelop the hair, softening it while improving scalp conditions.
